-Next Wednesday, April 21st, is "Arbor Day." Upon that day every owner of prairie land should set out as many trees as possible. In the States of Kansas and Nebraska, during the past few years, "Arbor Day," (the third Wednesday of April) has been universally observed and thus millions of trees have been planted. We hope the prairie farmers of Holt will observe said, and ex-office Clerk of the Board of the day this year.
